NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., April 16, '98.

The merry-go-round began going round today.

R. R. Ragan is steadily improving, we are glad to know.

Capt. W. Johns, of Mt. Airy, arrived in the city this morning to visit his son, W. E. Johns, Jr.

United States Marshal Millikan and family passed through this morning enroute to Ashboro.

We are glad to announce that Rev. J. R. Scroggs is convalescing.

Rev. P. J. Carraway passed through today enroute to Old Union.

Prof. and Mrs. Carr passed through this morning returning Greensboro going to their home at Trinity.

Owing to the illness of Rev. J. R. Scroggs Rev. N. R. Richardson will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church tomorrow.

Prof. George H. Crowell will occupy the pulpit of the Friends' church tomorrow morning. No preaching at night.

S. W. Codey, who has been residing here for the past year, left today for his home in New York.

High Point was well represented at Guilford College this afternoon to witness the ball game between Oak Ridge and Guilford.

Miss Goodhue, of New York, an accomplished elocutionist, has consented to give an entertainment in the opera house next Monday night. Miss Goodhue comes highly recommended and our people may be sure of being highly entertained.

PROF. GARNER'S LECTURE.

His Experiences in the Heart of an African Jungle.

Prof. R. L. Garner will deliver a lecture in the Academy of Music next Tuesday night, April 19th in aid of the Greensboro Public Library. The lecture will be both instructive and entertaining. The following is the syllabus of the lecture:

The speech of the monkeys and other animals.

First efforts to study it. The use of the phonograph.

Monkeys, apes and men. Physical and mental.

Why I went to Africa to study.

Preparations. The journey. Arrival.

Selecting a location for the cage.

Haunts and habits of the gorilla.

The great forest. Its denizens and its dangers.

My cage and furniture. Companions and neighbors.

My daily life in the cage. Morning, noon, night.

Moses, Aaron, Elisheba, Othello and Desdemona.

What I saw in the jungle by day.

What I heard in the jungle at night.

The tornado. Its terrors. Its effect.

What I learned by the trip. My return.

The moral benefit of my work.

We take at random from among a large quantity of press notices the following from the two leading English newspapers:

Prof. R. L. Garner gave to a large audience in Princes Hall last night an interesting account of his work and methods in studying the speech of monkeys, and the habits of the gorilla and chimpanzee in their native forests.—The Times, London, Eng.

His methods, themselves, begin to wear the glamor of the black arts, and what are his apparatus but magic toys? To play all day long with the phonograph, as Mr. R. L. Garner has been doing for some years experimenting on the speech of monkeys. He has certainly found a fascinating theme.

The perseverance and ingenuity with which he has set about exploring his terra incognita is remarkable.—The Spectator, London, Eng.

WARM TIME IN THE SENATE

House and Senate Leaders Looking for Joint Arrangement

SESSION MAY RUN INTO SUNDAY

Speech Making the Order of the Day. Late This Afternoon No Time Has Been Set to Vote.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 16—When the senate met this morning it was with the understanding that before adjournment today a vote should be taken on the foreign relations committee resolutions. The exact time to vote cannot be stated; but it will be taken late this evening and possibly the legislative day may be carried over into Sunday.

If the house can be prevailed upon to hold its session until the joint action of congress can be finally arranged and ultimately the resolutions can be sent to Spain on Monday. This is not likely. Orders have been issued to mobilize troops in the south and there is great activity in the navy department.

SENATOR CANNON OPENS DEBATE.

Washington, April 16—Senator Cannon, of Utah, opened the debate this morning with a vigorous speech in favor of the recognition of the Cuban government.

Senator Cannon charged the president with being vacillating, without purpose, without policy, one thing today and another tomorrow. He declared that he was for the recognition of the existing government of Cuba because it is the logic of the committee's report that there is but one way for peace and through the brazen gate of war.

Senator Allen, of Nebraska, followed Senator Cannon and said he wanted to enter a protest against the so-called powers entering the white house and telling the American people what they should do respecting a policy to be pursued on this hemisphere. He said: "I cannot understand why the president did not indicate to these so-called Powers that the presentation of their note will be considered a violation of all the traditions and all the doctrines of this country. Now, I am told that the so-called Powers are mustering themselves for another assault upon the white house." Allen, continuing, urged the recognition of the insurgents and predicted that if we interfered in Cuba without recognition, twenty-four months later these same Powers would be inviting us to an international arbitration on the liability of the United States for the Spanish-Cuban indebtedness. Allen was proceeding to outline his career as a private when time was called.

Senator Burrows, of Michigan, following Senator Allen, announced himself in favor of the president's policy and said that the president was subjected to unjust and cruel criticism. "Those who are prone to criticize should imitate the patriotism of Benjamin Harrison, who said, 'where a pilot is hired to steer a ship through the rapids, it does more harm than good for the passengers to tell him how to steer.'" Burrows added:

"I am for intervention, prompt, speedy and armed intervention. It would be a step sanctioned by precedents and all nations, and one that will meet the approval of all Christendom. Intervention does not necessarily mean war. If Spain resists our efforts she becomes the aggressor in such a conflict and would lose the sympathy and support of the Christian world."

When Senator Burrows finished speaking, Senator Platt was recognized and said: "The time for oratory and impassioned utterances has passed. There has never been a time for hot words. Epithets, intemperance, zeal, and oratory will not bombard Morro Castle. Strong words may wound the president but will not pierce the armor of Spanish warships. I believe that the desired result might have been accomplished peacefully if it had not been for the misstatement of those who desire to plunge the country into war."

CONGRESS TO MEET SUNDAY.

Washington, April 16—Negotiations are in progress by the house and senate leaders looking to a possible arrangement for the house and senate to remain in session tomorrow and to come to a final conclusion upon the Cuban resolutions.

U. S. FORCES WILL START MONDAY.

Washington, April 16—Adjutant General Corbin has just made the statement that the United States forces will all commence a southern movement Monday if congress passes the resolution by that time. The national guard will be called out.

SOLDIERS TO BE NUMBERED.

Washington, April 16—It was decided today by the war department to furnish each soldier in the Cuban invading army with an aluminum tag, numbered, for the purpose of identification.

SPANISH CONSUL ORDERED HOME.

Jacksonville, April 16—The Spanish consul here has been ordered home.

HURRYING AMMUNITION.

New York, April 16—United States tugs Uncas and Wampatuk sailed for Norfolk today and carried new armament and were decked out in war paint. They were saluted by all the river craft in sight as they left. Tugs are hurrying ammunition for the harbor fortifications today and by night the batteries will be thoroughly equipped.

WARSHIPS SIGHTED.

Washington, April 16—Five warships have been sighted off the island of St. Thomas. They are believed to be Spanish.

DISCUSSING CAPTURE OF HAVANA.

Washington, April 16—Fitz. Lee conferred with the president, General Miles and Secretary Alger today regarding plans for the capture of Havana and considered other military strategic matters.

Movement of Troops.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Leavenworth, April 16—Under command of Col. Hawkins, the Twentieth infantry hurried this morning aboard a special train for the southeast.

Chicago, April 16—The Fourth infantry left Fort Sherman this morning.

Cheyenne, April 16—The Eighth infantry started this morning for New Orleans.

Denver, April 16—Sergeants Baldwin, Myers, and Burnett, of the signal corps, department of Colorado, started for New Orleans today. They form the war balloon corps of the United States in the defense of New Orleans.

American Liners Sail.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Southampton, April 16—The American Liner St. Louis sailed for New York today on her regular trip. The New York will sail this afternoon in response to an urgent telegram.

SENATORS PASS THE LIE.

Money and Wellington Have a Warm Passage of Words.

Washington, April 15—"Pistols and coffee for two, and a bloodless duel will no doubt, be the result of the exchange of personalities indulged in tonight by Senators Money and Wellington. The happy remark made by Senator Wilson, just in the nick of time averted trouble on the floor of the Senate. Wellington charged that Senator Money was the agent of the New York Journal. Senator Money denounced this as false. Wellington repeated it, saying he did so on his own responsibility.

"You are a liar," shouted Money. "You are another," warmly replied Wellington.

The Maryland Senator said he would not disgrace himself by answering the Senator from Mississippi.

"We will settle it outside. We will go out now and settle it," replied Money, darting for the door. At this instant, Senator Wilson broke in by asking the President if in would be in order to declare war, and everybody laughed. A few minutes later Senator Money apologized to the Senate, saying, however, that he did not apologize to the Senator from Maryland. Friends of the two Senators are now trying to patch up the difficulty.

Senator Money, it is said, will demand an apology from Senator Wellington. If it is refused, then there may be trouble, as he is a game man.

At the Academy Tonight.

"Faust" is one of the greatest moral lessons ever written and many critics declare the story more powerful than a sermon. A show that everyone should see and most specially the young. The electrical effects are wonderful, as well as the hypnotical powers of the devil, showing vividly the great influence he has over the minds of the young.

Get your tickets at once and don't fail to see this great production. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents. Performance begins at 8:45 this evening at the Academy of Music.

ENGLAND HAS DEFEATED 'EM

The Powers Must Not Attempt to Coerce Uncle Sam

JOHN BULL WILL TAKE A HAND

Spain Gathering Her Forces for War. All Able-bodied Subjects are Being Ordered Home.

Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, April 16—England has defeated the powers in their efforts to coerce the United States by saying that in an event of that kind she is the active ally of the United States.

MOBILIZING HER FORCES.

Madrid, April 16—Spain is gathering her military forces for war. Every able bodied subject capable of bearing arms or of serving in the navy has been called home from every foreign country.

STILL LEAVING CUBA.

Havana, April 16—Public opinion expressed here is to the effect that there is a strong belief in the probability of war. The Segiranica sailed today, crowded with passengers. The city is quiet.

AMERICAN CONSULATE GUARDED.

Madrid, April 16—The American consulate is under guard at Cadiz, owing to some disturbance.

ENGLAND NO PARTY TO IT.

Union Jack and Stars and Stripes in Combination.

London, April 16—The Chronicle says:

"England is now once more dragged at the heels of despots, and made to play the game of the latest of the rotten tyrannies that enumber the earth. It was easy to coerce Greece, but America stands in a different category. She is a very great power, intensely proud and entirely self contained. Her fate has been to undertake a task peculiarly arduous and thankless. She is not going to be bullied by the heroes of the Cretan blockade, and if the movement against her is pressed too far, she will be compelled in her own interests to clear the situation.

"Our present purpose is to insist that our government does best by using every means in its power to defeat any anti-American combination. If there be any doubt about the feelings of the great majority of the nation, we shall be happy to try the experiment of marching a hundred thousand Londoners through the metropolis with the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes in combination. It is the business of the mother country to stand by her children of the west, as stiffly and strongly as one country can by another."

The Times, which attaches no importance to the rumors of a European demonstration against the United States, says: "England would assuredly be no party to such a demonstration, but it is even more absurd to suggest that because England sympathizes with American indignation at Cuban horrors, the British government ought to rush into armed alliance with the United States for a settlement of a question in which we have no immediate concern."

SPAIN'S NAVY IN BAD SHAPE.

Work Delayed on the Charles V. and the Pelayo.

Madrid, April 14—Advices from Ferrol and Carthage assure me that the battleships Charles V and Pelayo won't be ready under two months. Naval authorities at Ferrol, Carthage and Cadiz complain bitterly that the building and fitting out of war vessels has not been done abroad, as the native industry resources are utterly insufficient. They also complain of the war stores that the ammunition and shells are of all sizes. The present war scare may lead to revelations of possibilities that will be very grave indeed for the Madrid government's marine ministers for the last ten years.

The auxiliary cruisers, commanded by officers of the royal navy, seem destined to play an important part in the war.

Ada Rehan Honored.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, April 16—Ada Rehan was elected the permanent governor of the memorial theatre at Stratford-on-Avon.

Miss Goodhue's Entertainment.

The entertainment given last night at the Academy of Music by Miss Goodhue, of New York, was one of the best ever seen in Greensboro. Miss Goodhue easily showed that she is a finished elocutionist and the program of last night demonstrated Miss Goodhue's ability as an impersonator. Her impersonations of little folks in the Knight of 19th century, "what a little boy thinks," being things in the dark, and the experience of a young society woman were exceedingly true to life and very laughable. In the portrayal of child life Miss Goodhue is most happy. A mosaic of familiar authors, showed most clearly her versatility as an elocutionist. The imitations of "bird talk" were the best ever heard here. As a little girl expressed it: they were so true to life that everyone looked to find the birds. No one portion of the program can be selected as the best, for all of the selections were admirably rendered. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment and should Miss Goodhue ever return to Greensboro she will receive a most hearty reception.

Misses Minnie and Hetty Lyon charmed their audience with instrumental duets. Miss Minnie Lyon played some very pretty selections on the violin accompanied by her sister on the piano.

Mrs. Hagan's solo, accompanied by Mrs. Van Noppen on the Piano, was very prettily sung and won for her much applause. The music was exceptionally good and was much enjoyed.

HERO. HANNA.

A few months ago the friends of the Republican party cheerfully strained every nerve to elect Mr. Hanna to one of Ohio's seats in the Federal Senate, against the bitter and discreditable endeavor of the Foraker faction. Hanna became again a national hero, about whom the conservative sentiment throughout the Union centered for the time being; and feelings of the other sort went out toward Foraker. Today, however, as a development of the Cuban crisis, Senator Hanna is determinedly making popular support of him impossible by applying his political skill and influence to the defeat of the national desire to end, with the fewest moments of delay, the despotism and the atrocities of Spain in Cuba; and at the same time he is putting in the strongest light of contrast those sterling qualities of patriotic feeling and stalwart Americanism which are as active in his rival, Foraker as in any politician in the United States.—New York Sun.

Mr. Hanna has followed with absolute fidelity the path that any one acquainted with his character would have marked out for him. He has been true to his antecedents. Nobody expected Mr. Hanna to display Americanism; his ignorance of the term is as colossal as his indifference to it. His knowledge of Americanism is about as extensive as a porker's comprehension of psychology. Those who lionized Mr. Hanna are now reaping what they have sown. Mark Hanna a national hero! The Spaniards in making a hero of General Weyler show better taste. Mr. Hanna stands for all that is most vicious in American politics. He represents the new order of things. He stands for that class of senators who have drawn a check. He regards his elevation to place as a purely commercial transaction. Mr. Foraker represents the old order. He is a politician as such there are in his career, as in the life of every politician, some things that would appear shady.

Despite all this Mr. Foraker and men of his class have patriotism; they know what Americanism means. From Foraker to Hanna is a far cry. Mr. Hanna bought his office. Why therefore should he not expect a generous profit from it? Would you expect Mr. Hanna to stand up for the nation's honor? Mr. Hanna is not versed in matters of honor; he and honor have never been on speaking terms.

Today, as of old, the ability to shoot straight counts in warfare. Thirteen inch guns are dangerous only when pointed in the right direction. The marksmanship of the Spanish gunner is reported to be comparable only to the stone-throwing ability of the average woman.

General Weyler is the most popular man in Spain. General Lee is the most popular man in the United States. You may know a people by its idols. This illuminates the difference between Spaniards and Americans. Lee, Weyler—America, Spain; there you have the whole story.

Oh, well, the American is somewhat of a bluffer himself if it comes to that.

His Excellency has gone to his rice farm for a rest. Let us hope that he will bring back with him enough to distribute a good sized chunk to each citizen of the state.

When the American fleet opens on Morro Castle, then "war will be inevitable." Until then trust the "conservative senator" to find a way or make one.

Spain's note to the Powers is doubtless meant to attract their attention, only, while she licks the "yankees" and preserves her "honor."

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

The Chilean war for independence furnishes the background for Archer P. Crouch's forthcoming romance, "Senorita Montemar," a story of adventure.

A new biography of Mirabeau, the brilliant orator of the French Revolution, has been written by P. F. Willert for the Foreign Statesmen series.

Bernard Shaw has declared in his opinion Shakespeare is to Ibsen "what the Eiffel Tower is to one of the peaks of an Alpine chain."

The Macmillan Company announces the coming publication of Tales of the Enchanted Islands of the Atlantic, by Colonel Thomas Wentworth Higginson. This book will treat of the cycle of romance that lies within the early Irish, English, Spanish and other traditions of the Happy Islands of the West.

The author of "As Others Saw Him," that remarkable study of the contemporary Jewish opinion of Jesus, turns out to be Joseph Jacobs.

Lawrence Hutton is at work upon a volume of "Recollections of Eminent Men in Art, Letters and the Drama," with whom he has been brought into personal contact during the last quarter of a century.

Dr. George Brandes is writing the special introductions to Ibsen's historical plays and Dr. Paul Schlenker to the Scandinavian dramatists' modern problem dramas. The first volume of this definitive German edition has just appeared.

Paul Marmontin, in his "Elisa Bonaparte," tells of the youth of Napoleon's sister and of the part she played in the four years of the Consulate. The book is full of anecdotes connected with her relation with the writes of the time. She was the friend of Mme. Recamier, Chateaubriand and de Fontanes.

Putnam's Sons have in preparation a series entitled "The Heroes of the Protestant Reformation," to be edited by Prof. Samuel Macauley Jackson, of the University of the City of New York. The first volume, now in press, is from the pen of the Rev. Henry E. Jacobs, professor of theology in the Lutheran Seminary, Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, and is entitled "Martin Luther." Prof. Jackson is preparing the second volume, which will be on "Zwingli," and Professor Emerton of Harvard will give the volume on "Erasmus."

In "Wanderers," his forthcoming story, Sidney Pickering relates the philosophical vagabondage of an educated gentleman, who, sick of the conventionalities, turns his back on his social position and, accompanied by his little daughter, betakes himself to the road, together with complications, psychological and practical, which result therefrom.

The new volume of the Dictionary of National Biography extends from Stanhope to Stovin. Sidney Lee contributes the article on Laurence Sterne, in which he embodies new information, derived from unpublished information. Austin Dobson writes of Sir Richard Steele, and Sidney Colvin of Robert Louis Stevenson.

Prof. W. Z. Ripley is to put into permanent book form his valuable series on "The Racial Geography of Europe."

W. E. Henley has almost completed the manuscript of his annotations for the delayed second volume of his edition of Byron. It will appear this month and will contain the first installment of the "Poems," that is to say, "Hours of Idleness," "English Bards and Scotch Reviewers" and "Cantos 1 and 2 of 'Childe Harold.'"

In recognition of Charlotte Young's

"great services as pioneer of that religious and high toned literature for young people." It is proposed to found a university scholarship bearing her name, at the Winchester (Eng.) high school, which receives girls from all parts of the kingdom. The author of "Heir of Redclyffe" has been connected with this school from its foundation in 1884 as one of the Council of Management.

AS TO BISHOP TIMBER.

Is There Only One Piece in all North Carolina?

A good deal has been said in the papers the past few days about North Carolina bishop timber and this writer is surprised at the startling statement, which seems to be almost universally accepted, that there is only one piece of bishop timber in all North Carolina. Methodism.

The following from the High Point Enterprise shows about the gist of what the papers are saying:

"By common consent, we believe, there is at present only one piece of Bishop timber in North Carolina and this is Dr. James Atkins, at present the Sunday school editor of the Southern Methodist church. He is admirably fitted for his present position and is filling it to the utmost satisfaction of the whole church. We have many other able men, but when it comes to selecting a Bishop from this state all eyes are at once turned upon Dr. Atkins."

The Telegram doesn't subscribe in toto to the above. Dr. Atkins is a man of recognized ability. He is filling his present position ably and acceptably. He has not been there long and is just getting used to the harness. It is a great field for usefulness. Let Dr. Atkins stay there.

And further, to say that he is the only man in the state who is qualified for the position of bishop, is a sweeping declaration and bears on its face an unjust reflection on a number of able men who have for years steered, successfully, church affairs in North Carolina. If a newspaper should say there is only one man in the state qualified for the office of governor, that paper would at once be put down as narrow, contracted and selfish, and the editor might get a fight on his hands. Yet, you might just as truthfully make that statement as to say that Dr. Atkins is the only man fit to be a bishop.

It is a matter of opinion and the opinion of all men is entitled to consideration. The Telegram believes there are other "pieces of bishop timber" in North Carolina, and it is the business of the church and not the secular papers to make the selection.

FOR TRANSPORTING TROOPS.

Secretary of War Invites Proposals from Coastwise Steamships.

Washington, April 14—The secretary of war today authorized Quartermaster General Ludington to invite companies operating steamship lines along the coast, to submit proposals for chartering to the government their vessels for use in transporting troops, munitions of war, supplies, etc. These companies include the Old Dominion, the Plant Line and others. As the Plant company runs a line of steamers to Cuba, this would seem to indicate that the government contemplates transporting troops and munitions of war to the island in the event of hostilities.

Big War in Philippines.

Madrid, April 15—A letter just received here from the Philippine Islands says that all the troops which were embarking for Spain were marched hurriedly to various towns in the interior, where the rebellion against Spanish rule has been renewed. It is added that over 20,000 well armed insurgents, and a number of Spanish priests have been massacred.

Nobody appears to know how the Philippine insurgents, who had been disarmed, according to general report, were rearmmed, but the belief prevails that Japan had a hand in the matter.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years he has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

M'KINLEY advises all persons old and young to cure themselves of all aches and pains, croup, coughs and colds, rheumatism, neuralgia and bronchial troubles to do this, use only Rice's famous Goose Grease Liniment always guaranteed and sold by wholesale and retail druggists.

OUR special offer for 30 days is out and the time is passed when we set mantle sets free. But we will continue to give you the best value for the money of any firm in our line. Special—We have a few odds in crates that we will sell for $1.00, $1.25, and $1.50. Remember us when you want first-class plastering done at reasonable figures. Yours anxiously to serve, McClamroch Bros., 217 South Elm St.

BICYCLE Shoes at 59, 75, 99 cents. Eastman Kodak at $4.00. G. Daniel.

ON the limbo of the nineteenth century, nothing can possibly occupy or take the place of Grape tobacco as it will make its debut to centuries to come. a5 tf

PREPARING FOR WAR. In preparing for war, congress will use all efforts to reduce suffering on the east and north, the south does not need their help in this line, we have Rice's Goose Grease, that cures all forms of rheumatism, gout, croup, coughs and colds. Sold by all druggists and general stores, always guaranteed.

G. DANIEL carries a full and complete line of Bicycle, Base Ball Goods, Sweaters, Belts, &c. G. Daniel.

THE POEM OF TRUTH—Chew Grape tobacco when you are hot; chew Grape when you are cold as it is worth to you its weight in gold. More truth than poetry. Grape. a5 tf

THE largest bicycle store in town is G. Daniel's. He is agent for the Rambler, Stearns, and Sterling. His $30 ladies wheel is a beauty. Call and see them. G. Daniel.

THE message of McKinley will say don't let your store of Rice's Goose Grease fall into the hands of the Spaniards, it is a grand remedy for such a race, for it cures everything.

WANTED—All persons who must buy anything in my line to stop in and see how we can accommodate you. Quality and price always considered. John B. Fariss. m19

FOR good Plastering see McClamroch Bros. They guarantee their work. See them about that new house. They sell mantels cheap. a9tf

SURELY if Spain did blow up the Maine, she was insane and can never retain the high opinion of the American people as Grape tobacco. a5 tf

COLUMBIA and Hartford Bicycles are now on exhibition at Garland Daniel's Bicycle and Sporting Goods Store. Call and see them. Chainless. R. D. Douglas, Agent.

HANDSOME EMBOSSED Society cards for the following societies: K. of P., I. O. O. F. and J. O. U. A. M. Call and have your address printed on some. Prices moderate. Jos. J. Stone, Printer. Oct. 9. tf

THAT bicycle lamp ordinance was a surprise. If we had expected it you may be sure we would not have let it caught us with a short supply of the best bicycle lamps on the market. However, we ordered a full supply by express and they are here. The price will surprise you for they are so cheap. Ask for the Diamond. m31tf Odell Hardware Co.

THE property offered by Wharton & Dodson next Monday can be divided into 26 lots with a frontage of 60 feet and an average depth of over 125 feet; it will be within the limits of the sewer system. This property, when put up, will be sold and we believe it is the finest opportunity that has been offered in a long time for the purchaser to make a handsome profit. m16 Dodson & Wharton.

THOSE wishing stenographic and typewriting work can get the same promptly and accurately done at my office, on West Market street. Hattie G. Hartsell, corner room Advocate office. j 26 tf

THE people of America are crying, less war and more chaw of Grape tobacco. a5 tf

Notice

At the annual sale of Registered Jersey Cattle from Oconeechee Farm, April 7, 1898, I bought the thoroughbred Jersey Bull No. 3, Romola's
chief, 41425 A J C C, sire Meridale Buffer 31346. Dam Romola of Beverly 47860. Romola is one of the best Cows at Oconeechee farms. Her dam was imported. The sire, Meridale Buffer is from dam Meridale coquette, 64535, whose record at two years old in one week was 17 pounds butter.
Her grand dam was Ida of St. Lambert, who made 30 pounds butter in one week and milked 67 pounds in one day. The grand sire of Meridale Buffer is Ida's Riorer of St. Lambert.
This is a great Bull, standing for years at the head of Miller Sibleys herd. Also carries the blood of Matilda 4th, 60 pounds milk in a day and 26 pounds butter in a week. Stoke Poglad and Stoke Poglad. Will stand at my stable near Fishling Mills.
J. W. LINDAU.

Negro Game of Bluff.

A letter from Montgomery county states that recently the negroes of that county held a meeting and demanded half the offices of the white Republicans, and the latter would not agree to that arrangement. The negroes then decided to put up a straight negro ticket. This is all mighty big,
but the Radical bosses of Montgomery long before election, will have every negro to vote as he is told.

There Is Nothing So Good.

There is nothing just as good as Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, so demand it and do not permit the dealer to sell you some substitute. He will not claim there is anything better, but in order to make more profit he may claim something else to be just as good. You want Dr. King's New Discovery because you know it to be safe and reliable, and guaranteed to do good or money refunded. For coughs, colds, consumption and for all affections of throat, chest and lungs, there is nothing so good as Dr. King's New Discovery. Trial bottle free at C. E. Hol-ton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

Graham, N. C., Nov. 23, 1898.
Mrs. Joe Person—Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the wonderful cure your Remedy made on my little daughter, some eight years ago. She was afflicted with some blood impurity which resulted in boils and sores on her head, face and neck, which troubled her severely and continuously for 18 months, more or less. After trying different remedies for a long time without any permanent relief, a friend advised me to try your medicine. After a short use of it she began to improve and when she had taken about eighteen bottles the sores and boils were entirely healed, there has never been any return of them, and she seems now to be entirely well. I consider your Remedy one of the very best blood purifiers on the market.
Yours very truly,
J. H. WATSON.

THE ELECTION MATTER AGAIN.

"Tax Payers' Replies to Yesterday's Article in the Record.

Communicated.
Editor Telegram—It is not my intention, nor was it in my article of the 14th, to attack anyone's private character, but if you will allow me space in your columns I wish to answer some arguments presented by "Tax Payer" and Jas. D. Glenn in the Record of the 15th.

First, I wish to repeat the old saying, that "The hit dog is the one that always hollers." Personally there is not a man on the board of aldermen that is not a gentleman, but it seems that the above parties think it was the intention of the writer to try to bring reproach upon them personally. Not a name was mentioned nor any reference made to the present mayor, board of aldermen, chief of police or any policeman. I only called attention to such things as it would be well to have in mind when looking about for men to fill these places for another year and why these parties should make an effort to defend the gentlemen occupying these positions at present leaves us to infer that they know of their being guilty of some of the things mentioned as objectionable. What else is there to infer?

Since Jas. D. Glenn has been so "brave" as to sign his name to his article I feel he has placed himself in a position to be answered direct. Why should he think my article was intended for him? Are there not eleven other men on the board of aldermen? But it must be him for he says he declines to allow his name to be used again
"as his time is so occupied in representing other corporations that he can no longer give the time to the interest of the city that an alderman should."
This from his own words seems to be proof that "Taxpayer" of 14th was hitting a keynote of some of the songs that have been sung for years, and are now being sung.

If it were not for making this article
personal the writer could mention
some transactions in the remembrance of all that would throw light on and justify "Taxpayer" in referring to certain things that were not wanted in representatives on our board of aldermen for another year.

In answer to Taxpayer of April 15th when I began to read the headlines of his article I thought I would see something else but my own words compiled to suit his case. He must be a "coward" too, according to the gentleman above
I guess he is one of the boys "not worthy to be noticed", just because he was afraid to sign his name to his article.

To him I wish to say "I am a democrat," voted the democratic ticket straight from "a to Izard" for the past 19 years, voted for the present municipal authorities the first time and felt I was doing right and I propose to so continue to vote in county, state and national affairs, but no more in our city election, because the party has not been benefited any by the transactions of the "municipal democratic party" in Greensboro.
The writer was one of the strongest advocates for the change from the "citizen ticket" to the "political" for the reason that he felt that somebody should be held responsible for the transaction of the city affairs.

Further, I wish to say to "Taxpayer" in the "Record," I am not trying to "fry any fish," nor trying to bring my name forward for a nomination.
I would not have any office in the gift of the people. I have a remunerative business and am satisfied with that.
But as a citizen of Greensboro I feel an interest in her welfare and wish to see her represented by men who hold themselves above catering to and being influenced by men who are willing to sacrifice their bitter personal feelings, to promote his so called political schemes.

The writer feels that his article of the 14th has turned attention to our coming city election and hope nothing will be left undone to put men in office for another year who will look closely after the best interest of this city and will see her every ordinance enforced and the transgressors promised so much so that we will not have to tolerate in our midst and right until our everyday observation, things that now exist and which was mentioned in my last article. I have nothing to retract. "Taxpayer of 14th."

Spurred by Fire to a Mad Run.

Coudersport, Pa., April 15—Residents along the Burtville road were awakened Tuesday night by the agonizing shrieks of a man. They saw a form wrapped in flames fleeing along the road for half a mile when it fell in a heap. It was Wesley McDowell, who had placed his lighted pipe in his coat pocket. His clothes caught fire, and his running made them burn more fiercely. When help reached him he was fatally burned.

Ready to Leave.

Jacksonville, April 15—Senor Potus,
the Spanish vice consul here, received orders today from the Spanish minister at Washington to be prepared to leave at a moment's notice. The vice consul has accordingly packed his personal effects and is now waiting further orders.

The Fine for Passing in this State.

Col. Fairbrother, of the Farrago is responsible for the following, which is by no means bad:

It is said that Col. Andrews offended a northern gentleman at the Yarbrough house the other morning at breakfast. The colonel and the northern man were alone at the table, and as no waiter was at hand the northern man said: "I will thank you for the sugar." The colonel paid no attention to this request and the northern man, thinking he was deaf, very loudly said: "Please pass the sugar." The colonel looked at him and said: "Stranger, I would be damned glad to do it, but the fine for passing is a thousand dollars in this country."

FOR STREET CARS.

A Meeting of the Board of Aldermen To Consider the Matter.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last night to consider a proposition looking to the matter of establishing an electric street car line and street lighting plant. The Mayor presided, and all the members were present except Hiatt, Phipps and Thornton.

The call was read after which J. N. Wilson, attorney for W. H. Haughton, filed a proposition with the board the substance of which is as follows:

That Mr. Haughton will agree to build an electric plant and supply ninety arc lamps of twelve hundred candle power each and two thousand incandescent lamps of sixteen candle power each; also six miles of trolley capable of carrying a load of ten 35 feet loaded cars; also five to six miles of trolley car track and will operate a sufficient number of passenger cars to accommodate the public.

Further, he proposes to furnish to the city street lighting 90 arc lamps 1200 candle power at $68.50 each, moonlight schedule, for a period of five years. All additional lights put in as required by the city in excess of said 90 arc lamps shall be put in and operated as follows: First five at $60 each; second five at $55 each; third five at $50 each; fourth five at $47.50 each, and $47.50 for any additional number required.

The plant and power shall be sufficient to supply power for street railway, street lighting and private lighting as above and to furnish at least one hundred horse power for manufacturing purposes to begin the erection of said plant in 60 days and will have the light plant and three miles of car line completed and in operation by January 1st, 1899.

Alderman Ellington moved that the proposition of Mr. Haughton be referred to a special committee of five to investigate and report to the next meeting of the board and that the present lighting company be requested to submit a proposition. Carried.

The mayor appointed on this committee the following aldermen: Shaw, Merrimon, Elam, Frazier and McKinney.

The board adjourned.

They Hit the Mark.

The target practice of the flying squadron demonstrated that Uncle Sam's sailor boys are good at "shooting." The following shows what they can do to Spain in case of war:

Friday morning was given up to practice, all the ships putting out targets at 800 yards. The gunners on the Brooklyn cut the flag from the top of their targets within twenty minutes. This was remarkable work when it is considered that the target was but 18 inches square and the flag staff but two inches wide.

EDITORIAL.

Did you ever hear of the Universal Food Chopper?

A few weeks ago a representative of the manufacturers gave an exhibit in our store. The variety of articles it would chop—the number of ways it would chop them—in short many accomplishments of the little utensil excited the wonder of all. The price, too, is wonderfully cheap, only $1.75. We will sell the chopper to any reliable person with the understanding that if it is not satisfactory it may be returned and the money will be refunded.

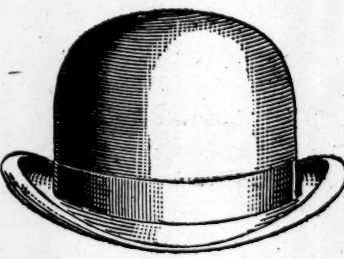

Do you pay any attention to the beautifying of your grounds? It will improve the appearance of your property fifty per cent, if you will have a well kept lawn. The cost is exceedingly small, while the increase in value if you sell or rent will more than pay the cost of all the improvements you make.
